

Stay on top of your medical expenses, co-pays, deductibles, medicine, and coverage with this convenient insurance tracker. Keeping track of all these details may be challenging—especially while you’re going through treatments—but it will help you save time and avoid complications in the long run.

Print this page and fill out the chart the best you can, trying to enter any expenses as you go through your cancer treatment experience. Then put this weekly insurance tracker on your refrigerator or somewhere handy to help you and your caregivers record your expenses.
